As a last resort before formally declaring a strike on the Western Union. Telegraph system, Pesident S. J. Small, of the Commorcial Telegraphers' Union of America, and a committee will on Wednesday go over the head of President Clowry, of the Western Union, and negotiate with the Board of Directors. George J. Gould and James Hazen Hyde, directors of the company, have always expressed sympathy with the operators, and there is general regret over their absence in Europe.

President Small will have to consult James Stillman. Chauncey M. Depew. H. H. Flagler, Morris K. Jesup, Edwin and Frank Gould and E. H. Harriman on Wednesday, and on the result of this conference depends whether or not the telegraph operators all over the United.

Girl Figures in Strike.

Miss Sophie Annaker, a pretty young woman operator who is not out of her teens, is one of the twenty which the union wants reinstated. She lives in Washington avenue. Chester Park, L. L., and is an expert telegrapher. For her activity in the union, it is said, she was dropped by the Western Union management.

At the Astor House to-day she was prominent in the greating of delegates from far-off cities, and discussed her case with much earnestness. On the issue of reinstatement the Union Committee may strike a snag, it is said. Camille Powers, of No. 1466 Fifty-fifth street, Brooking Margaret Blanks and Sadik Krochinat, of this city, are on the list for reinstatement.

The atrike fund will be at least 220,000. Every union operator in the United States and Canada in case of strike will be massessed if a week at the start. The union has a $2,000 strike fund at present, but this will be entered at once. There are $25,000 members, and the assessment can be income to the strike committee of $125,000 a week is expected.
